

Graduation

On Saturday, February 20th, 30 graduates of the IAVI/DIT BSc(Hons) in property studies and 39 graduates of the IAVI/DIT Higher Certificate in property studies were conferred with their awards. A further 8 graduates from each course were not able to be present and were conferred in absentia.

The colourful ceremony took place in the magnificent surroundings of St Patrick's Cathedral and was followed by a reception at the Dublin Institute of Technology, Aungier Street. The ceremony provided a fitting finale to the hard work and achievement of the students.

BSc(Hons) in Property Studies and Higher Certificate in Property Studies.

The Anthony O'Neill Memorial Award for the student with the highest marks on the BSc(Hons) in property studies was awarded to Sarah-Louise Rossiter, who runs her own business 'Dragonfly Facilities Management' at Coolree in Wexford.

The Owen O'Riordan Memorial Medal for academic excellence, which is given to the student gaining the highest academic marks on the Higher Certificate course was awarded to Marie McDonald of DNG Flanagan Ford, Sligo.

The winner of the Anthony O'Neill Memorial Award, Sarah-Louise Rossiter pictured with her parents Margaret and Donal Cashman, husband Ian, baby Ben and IAVI President Aine Myler.

Marie McDonald, winner of the Owen O'Riordan Memorial medal.

Will Coonan with IAVI President Aine Myler and proud parents Mary and Willie Coonan FIAVI.

Kate Joyce with parents Deirdre and Tony Joyce MIAVI and IAVI President Aine Myler.

A happy Matt Forkin.

Graduation

BSc(Hons) in Property Studies and Higher Certificate in Property Studies.

The BSc (Hons) Property Studies Group.

Samantha Coote receives her scroll from Professor Brian Norton, President, The Dublin Institute of Technology.

The Higher Certificate Group.