

Quinlan Private

Founded in 1989, Quinlan Private is Ireland's leading private client advisory group and as part of an international expansion plan has recently opened offices in London and New York. Quinlan Private has an outstanding reputation as principal and advisor in originating, structuring, financing, developing and managing a diversified portfolio of prime assets. The portfolio consists of assets valued at several billion euro including commercial office blocks, retail outlets, shopping centres, car-parks and hotels throughout Europe and North America. Quinlan Private also works closely with major international banking groups to syndicate and place private equity in property transactions.

An outstanding opportunity has arisen to join Quinlan Private in a Private Equity capacity. Initially the successful candidate will work for the Group Chief Executive of a rapidly expanding and highly acquisitive company within the Quinlan Private portfolio.

ACQUISITIONS MANAGER

The Role

- Manage all aspects of acquisition activity undertaken by the company. This will involve identifying target companies, managing the due diligence and, ultimately the acquisition process.
- Work closely with the senior management team on all aspects of the strategic and business development plan.

The Requirement

- A first rate corporate financier with a minimum of five years' relevant experience gained with a large corporate, accountancy practice or venture capital/corporate finance house.
- Ability to relate to owners from varying backgrounds, including owner managers and venture capital companies.
- A highly motivated and commercially focussed individual with excellent negotiating and influencing skills.

This is a key position for the company and will represent an outstanding opportunity for rapid progression.

A very attractive remuneration package commensurate with experience will apply.
